F1 STUDENT FINANCIAL DECLARATION

As an F-1 student you will be required to enroll full-time and make normal progress towards your degree. These charges are subject to change without notice and students should be prepared for any adjustments in expenses. Estimated expenses for a single student are as follows:

ACADEMIC YEAR – 12 MONTHS (3 QUARTERS OF ENROLLMENT AND 1 VACATION QUARTER)

	UNDERGRADUATE (Junior/Senior, 3 classes/qtr)	GRADUATE (2 classes/qtr)
Tuition, fees and books	$29,733	$19,158
Transportation	$ 3,728	$ 3,728
Room and Board	$ 24,344	$ 24,344
Personal Expenses	$ 2,544	$ 2,624
TOTAL ESTIMATED YEARLY EXPENSES	$60,429	$49,854

Above estimates are calculated without any dependents – for each DEPENDENT please add $7,674/year.

* Tuition is subject to yearly increase. The tuition shown above reflects rates effective from July 1, 2026 - June 30, 2027.

* Expenses may vary greatly depending upon individual lifestyle and quarters of enrollment per year.

* Not all programs allow for annual vacation quarters.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT

City University of Seattle requires certification of adequate financial support from applicants with student visas before admission will be considered. Students need to prepare to pay tuition and fees for the quarter at the time of registration. City University of Seattle cannot defer payment of tuition and fees. Include your/your sponsor's current bank statement (dated within 9 months of the desired starting date) and, if applicable, your sponsor's letter with this application.
